Negroes And Police Battle In Illinois

DANVILLE, Ill. (AP)—About 200 Negroes confronted some 70 policemen late Sunday after using picnic tables from a nearby park to barricade a street through Danville's Negro community.

Several policemen were injured by thrown bricks and a fire bomb was thrown at the officers before a pepper fogger was used to disperse the crowd.

An uncontrolled number of demonstrators were arrested and were being booked on charges ranging from disorderly conduct to carrying concealed weapons.

It was the second night of disorders in the area. Saturday night, about 100 persons confronted two squads of police in an incident that included the shooting of Carl Givens, 17, and the burglary of a sporting goods store.

Police Chief William Brey said a shell reportedly from Givens' neck his been sent in the Illinois Crime Lab to determine if it came from a police shotgun fired toward the crowd or another weapon.

Givens was listed in satisfactory condition in an Indianapolis hospital.

Three men had been arrested in connection with the burglary, Brey said. Fifteen shotguns and manufacture were taken from Bott's Sporting Goods store after police dispersed some 75 persons who gathered at the Danville housing where Givens was first taken.

Sunday night's incidents began with sporadic trash and grass fires and brick and bottle throwing in the Carver Park area. They about 50 persons moved picnic tables from the park and barricaded Williams Street.

A car was stopped at the barricade and pelted with bricks, Brey said, after which he and several officers went to the area. A couple in the car suffered minor injuries.

A crowd swelled to about 200 and Brey called in about 70 police and Civil Defense personnel who were standing by.

About 12:30 a.m. Brey said, the crowd was dispersed using a pepper fogger, a riot control device emitting a harmless smoke and a loud raucous noise. Several officers suffered minor injury from thrown objects, he said.

Sentence Is Given Man In Burglary Of April 20

Harold D. Smith Jr., 24, was sentenced six months Monday for his part in the April 20 breaking and entering of the Robert Jacobs residence on U.S. 40 east of Pennville.

The penalty was given by Judge J. Brandon Griffis in Wayne Superior Court on a guilty plea to third degree burglary entered Aug. 5 by the Dayton, Ohio, man.

Originally Smith was charged with first degree burglary, but this was reduced to third degree burglary on a new charge filed by Prosecutor Wayne L. Tash.

Smith will serve 90 days of the term given him Monday in the Indiana State Farm. The remaining 90 days were suspended by Judge Griffis on recommendation of the prosecutor.

It was learned Monday that he been in jail (116 days) since his arrest; was really an accomplice in the theft; has cooperated with authorities in helping in the case investigation, and has no previous record.

Gayle W. Gardner, court-appointed attorney representing Smith, told the court that Smith became involved "because of personal and emotional problems."

In suspending one-half the term, Judge Griffis placed Smith on probation for two years.

Jerome Jenks, 23, also of Dayton, faces a first degree burglary charge in connection with the same home breaking and entering. His case is pending. At liberty on bond, Jenks has pleaded innocent to the charge.

The Jacobs residence was ransacked. Jenks and Smith were apprehended near the scene, the Wayne County Sheriff's Department and Cambridge City marshal said at the time of their arrests.
