Policeman Shot In Radical Rally

United Press International

BERKELEY, Calif., Aug. 31 — A policeman was shot in the leg early today after a rally by young, radical activists developed into a traffic-blocking mob across less than four blocks from the University of California.

Squads of helmeted, club-carrying police broke up the milling crowd of about 500 with tear gas and "freezing gas" after attempting for an hour and a half to disperse the crowd.

The officer was shot in the thigh. He was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital. Doctors said the wound was not serious. Police said they were investigating the origin of the shot.

ANOTHER POLICEMAN was injured by flying glass and also was hospitalized.

Neither was identified immediately.

The rally broke up shortly after 10 p.m., when permits for independents expired. A police spokesman said most of the crowd of 200 left the scene after the orderly rally.

It had been called to show support for antiwar demonstrators roughed up by police during the Democratic National Convention in Chicago. The Young Socialist Alliance, the Independent Socialist Club, the Black Panther Party and the Peace and Freedom Party organized the demonstration.

WITNESSES SAID youths who remained when the rally ended suddenly broke windows at a Bank of America office and threw red paint on the front door.

A line of six police walked down a three-block stretch where the crowd of about 300 was gathered, asking youths to clear the streets. They did, but moved off the curb again when

Charge Up Hill

U. S. Infantrymen Rout Communists

United Press International

SAIGON, Aug. 31 — U.S. infantrymen and Montagnard mercenaries charged up a hill and routed Communist forces from positions used to shell a U.S. special forces camp, military spokesmen said.

The hill, about 20 miles west of Quang Ngai city on the north coast, was overrun by about 150 members of the 2nd North Vietnamese Division early Friday.

Headquarters disclosed 13 U.S. casualties and Montagnard casualties were light.

At least 21 persons were killed and 50 others injured in the pre-dawn shellings and raids, the government said. Most were Vietnamese civilians.

FROM ITS 230-foot peak, the Communists lobbed mortar shells into the Special Forces camp at Ba Thorn, killing five and wounding another.

Backed by artillery and air strikes, troops of the U.S. 196th Light Infantry Brigade and Montagnard tribesmen made three assaults on the hill before finally occupied it around 4:30 p.m., reported UPI correspondent David Lamb.

The North Vietnamese on the hill had taunted and jeered the allied soldiers during the 24-hour attacks, dancing in front of their bunkers and waving their rifles, U.S. officers detected. They may have been drugged.

NO PRECISE figures were immediately available, but U.S. officers and Communist sources were heavy. There was no immediate report on allied casualties.

The hill is one of seven mountain peaks overlooking the Green Berets camp and six enemy villages in the northern Quang Ngai region about 30 miles from Saigon.

COMMUNIST FORCES bombarded major allied installations along the length of South Vietnam and invaded two refugee camps on the northern coast, American military spokesmen reported.

Dr. DeBakey Transplants Four Organs

United Press International

HOUSTON, Aug. 31 — Five Methodist Hospital operating teams directed by Dr. Michael E. DeBakey transplanted the heart and three other organs of a woman into four different recipients today in an unprecedented surgical project.

[illegible]

THE HEART was given to William C. Carrel of Scottsdale, Ariz.

Her lung was given to William J. Whaley, 38, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

One kidney was given to Harlan C. Kaiser, 42, of Odessa, Tex. The other went to Thomas A. Sorensen, 23, of Houston.

The patients were reported in good stationary condition.

The multiple transplants were parts of a program at Baylor University's college of medicine aimed at using as many donor organs as feasible.

THE LUNG transplant was the first at Methodist, which is the Texas Medical Center professional home also of Dr. Denton A. Cooley, the world's busiest and most successful heart transplant doctor.

Methodist hospital's committee for clinical investigation approved the transplants of the organs into Whaley and Carrel.

THE KIDNEY operation were the 18th and 19th such transplants at Methodist, and for Kaiser it was his second "borrowed kidney." He had received a kidney from the woman's cornea donor. The donor of the kidney, one of two kidneys and a lung was Mrs. Velma Lee Hernandez, 32, who died of a gunshot wound in the head.

She was first treated at St. Joseph's hospital and then was transferred to Methodist, where she died as doctors prepared the transplants.

Carrel, 38, recipient of Mrs. Hernandez' heart, was admitted to the hospital Aug. 5, suffering from severe coronary arterial disease. Doctors decided early it was transplant would enable him to survive.

Whaley, 38, recipient of Mrs. Hernandez' lung, was admitted to the hospital May 12, suffering from chronic emphysema, which had incapacitated him.

DEBAKEY HAS been best known, not for heart surgery, but for cardiovascular surgery. Today's operations included his first transplant of a mechanical heart, which has been used in some previous heart operations.

The surgical teams under his direction today included 45 doctors, nurses, technicians and helpers. Teams of the surgeons carried out the transplants of the heart, lung, the two kidneys for separate recipients, then also removed the corneas of Mrs. Hernandez' eyes and put them into the "eye bank" in anticipation of transplants to recipients.

Heart Attack Kills Man Driving Car

James Robert Dodd, 46, 1024 Western Hill terrace, died of an apparent heart attack which also caused a traffic accident on Mesa at Montana near Laurel Street late yesterday.

The victim's stepdaughter, Diana Kay Becker, 12, was riding with him. She said Dodd suddenly collapsed behind the steering wheel and the car veered into a streetlight pole.

HE WAS TAKEN to St. Joseph's aid room by Mesa Ambulance and died. The girl was treated for shock, but was not injured. Justice of Peace Bob Moyer, coroner, ordered an autopsy. Police said if an attack were determined to be the cause of death, it would not be counted as a 1968 traffic fatality.

Triumph, Turmoil Behind Him

Wearied Hubert Gets Needed Rest

United Press International

WAVERLY, Minn., Aug. 31 — Hubert H. Humphrey, the triumph and turmoil of the convention behind him, today went into seclusion at his lakeside home, concerned by rumblings among Democrats and a formidable running challenge from Republican Richard M. Nixon.

Humphrey, weary from all the work of politics, risks and uncertainties, retreated to his Minnesota home for a badly needed rest and preliminary planning for the campaign designed to lead Nixon and unify the Democratic party and the nation.

The Vice President made it clear to dissident Democrats—backed by the convention endorsement of the Administration's Vietnam policy—that he would need their support. He even urged Democrats to be patient with the followers of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

Humphrey's desperate effort to unify the party for the coming campaign fell short when McCarthy, a renegade on Vietnam, refused to join with Humphrey in the party's difficult election campaign against Nixon.

In speaking to the Democratic National Committee, Humphrey did not name McCarthy but he had reference to the dissidents, saying, "give the people time and they will be there."

There also was another problem in the McCarthy backers in Humphrey's pledge to run on his acceptance speech, he said, would change the present Vietnam policy if he is elected.

As he spoke into the TV cameras, President made it known to the Democratic delegates and dignitaries also—that this choice was between him and Nixon.

He told the assembled committee: "ask yourself whether you would be a better place quiet which relaxes all the way to live if the Republicans win." up in the highest echelons of the Throughout the convention party. To reverence it, and Humphrey repeatedly asked Democrats to unite behind him. Friday he said, "we've got to have a unified party . . . which

Demo Hopes Rest on Dick 'Blowing It'

United Press International

CHICAGO, Aug. 31 — "As of now, the only thing going for the Democrats is the well-known ability of Richard M. Nixon to blow it."

That remark, by a departing Democratic convention delegate from Georgia, summed up a mood which now itself apart this week in the agitated, uglier summer political convention in modern American history.

HUBERT H. HUMPHREY, meeting this weekend at his lakeside home in Waverly, Minn., to relax and confer with the Democratic leaders, will be the one primary participant in his preparations for the 10-week election campaign that lies ahead.

"You can't win unless you

9 Dead, 15 Missing In Explosion, Fire

United Press International

GARY, Ind., Aug. 31 — An explosion and fire ripped through a tavern and strip apartment building near downtown Gary early today. Lake county coroner Alexander Wilcza said nine were dead and 15 missing.

Authorities said the dead were patrons of apartments upstairs from the "In Crowd" tavern, and possibly included persons still in the tavern after the legal closing hour. The ruins of the building were being searched for other victims, they said.

AN UNDETERMINED number of persons were injured.

Police were investigating reports that a fire bomb was hurled into the building. A witness reported seeing two men running in opposite directions moments after an explosion, which buried blocks from the "In Crowd" tavern about 100 feet down the street.

The tavern, in a predominantly Negro area which was the scene of some racial violence this summer, was closed when the fire broke out shortly before 2 a.m.

Aggression Will Not Be Condoned

Romania Situation Prompts Admonition Not to Misjudge U.S.

United Press International

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 31. — President Johnson said last night the Soviets, now in control in Czechoslovakia, may be preparing a new invasion "somewhere else in Eastern Europe"—apparently meaning Romania.

Johnson warned that "no wrong-doer argument (should) misjudge American policy" toward the use of force against freedom.

Addressing a convention meeting of milk producers, the President said it was clear Monday soldiers ordered the invasion of Czechoslovakia because they felt threatened by independent-

"IT IS CLEAR in me that the leaders in Moscow felt their interests were threatened—by even a modest degree of independence and human liberty," Johnson said. "And there are known rumors late this evening that the action might be repeated somewhere else in Eastern Europe."

Washington officials said Johnson referred to Romania, but there was no information troops had actually crossed the border.

In London, Foreign Minister Joseph Luns of the Netherlands said Soviet troops were massed in Hungary and the Romanian border. He could not speculate on possible Soviet intervention against that country.

DIPLOMATIC SOURCES in London said the Soviet Union mobilized 650,000 troops for the Aug. 21 invasion of Czechoslovakia.

The sources said about 300,000 were sent against the Czechs and the others kept in readiness for any action against Romania.

Johnson departed from a prepared text to say there should be no confusion on the U.S. position.

"There should not be any doubt in the minds of anyone as to where the United States of America stands on a question so fundamental the peace of the entire world," he said.

"We have added more bombs and more to recent years, in my

Russia Clamps Romania Tight

United Press International

LONDON, Aug. 31. — Moscow apparently has decided to force Czechoslovakia back into the Soviet fold and is keeping all options open to get its way, including possible military intervention, diplomatic sources said today.

The Kremlin pressures on Romania's provinces Nikolae Ceausescu are being kept up by all means, diplomatic and military, the sources said.

THE MOVES WERE said to be part of a major policy shift in the Kremlin. It aims at tightening the East Bloc and reducing it to the conditions in which Moscow once again calls the tune—without opposition.

Diplomatic reports reaching the West from East Europe reported "anything is possible" in the Kremlin plan for enhanced or a Ball-type strategy in the East European empire. They said the Russians probably want to force East Eu-
