Prison Gassing To Be Probed By U.S. Jury

The attorney general's office has said "not satisfied" the state of Oklahoma is in "substantial compliance with the order" according to an Associated Press report.

The judge added that the ruling that the state corrections department had not complied with his May 30 order, but he did not rule that way nor say why he didn't.

On May 30, Robinson ordered the state to end racial segregation of white and black inmates, and to provide adequate medical and dental care to all inmates. He also ordered the state to provide adequate medical and dental care to all inmates.

Robinson said the judge's order was not satisfied because the state had not provided adequate medical and dental care to all inmates.

According to The Associated Press, the judge stated his dissatisfaction with the way corrections officials followed his May 30 order after hearing testimony from the state's attorney general.

Witnesses testified that the prison is only being gassed once a week, and that the gas is not being used properly.

"Shop wisely, look for bargains—and brag about the fact you are a bargain hunter." —President Gerald Ford, Oct. 15, 1974

WE AGREE MR. PRESIDENT

The Clothing District men for the only time in the history of the store have been heard to say "We agree with you, Mr. President."

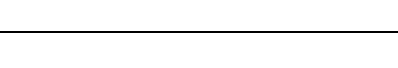

Our concern is this: we have the same quality merchandise at the same price as the stores in the area. We are the only store in the area that has been heard to say "We agree with you, Mr. President."

Our customers don't buy at the Clothing District out of financial necessity, but from a desire to receive the absolute maximum for their dollar, while enjoying a selection of quality suits and sport coats made in the U.S.A. Customers don't buy at the Clothing District because they don't want to pay more for their suits than they would at the Clothing District.

So, Mr. President, we at The Clothing District, and our thousands of customers across the Southwestern United States, proudly join you in your efforts to "WIN" over inflation.

Personal Note: We have over a hundred suits in your size, Mr. President, including a great selection of wool, velvet, "sweater" suits, for $24.95 and $32.50. Helpings and luncheon parking facilities are available. We accept out of town checks with prompt P.D.
