Jesus People High On Religion

By RICHARD LINDEN
Newsweek Feature

To many people, the Jesus People are a sect of the church. To others, they are a new religion. To still others, they are a cult. But to the Jesus People, they are a way of life. They are a community of people who have found a new way of living. They are a community of people who have found a new way of thinking. They are a community of people who have found a new way of feeling. They are a community of people who have found a new way of being.

They have a new way of life. They have a new way of thinking. They have a new way of feeling. They have a new way of being. They are a community of people who have found a new way of living.
